The proprietor of one of the new apartment houses near Fifth avenue has paid a rather heavy penalty for having a cartoonist as one of his tenants. The artist wanted some changes made in the decoration of his apartment, and the proprietor declined to make them. The proprietor's features are pronounced, and he wears long, flowing side whiskers. His face, distorted to suit the cartoonist's fancy, has appeared nearly every week in one of the comic papers. Sometimes the proprietor figures as the villain and again as the countryman who is bunkled every week in the pages of this publication. The cartoonist lets the whiskers grow from week to week;
then, just as his victim imagines that they will grow so long that his friend will not recognize him, the artist trims the whiskers down again. The proprietor of the apartment house has concluded that the only way in which he can get even with the cartoonist is to put in a bill for services as model—New York Sun.

Disheartening.
Even the clergyman, noble and inspiring as his vocation is, has now and then his bad moments.
"Oh, sir," said a poor woman to a Scottish minister, who was by no means a popular preacher, "well do I like the day when you give us the sermon."
"Indeed!" said the minister, flushing with pleasure. "I wish there were more like you, my good woman. It is seldom I hear such words from any one."
"Maybe their bearing's stronger than mine, sir," said the woman promptly,
"but when you preach I can always get a good seat." — Youth's Companion.
A Clock Run by Balls.
A clock owned in England is run by balls which fall into pockets on the right side of a wheel, which revolves and operates the works. The balls drop into a drawer when the wheel revolves far enough. The clock is "wound up" by placing the balls in a receptacle on top of the clock. — Jewelers' Circular-Weekly.
The first anthracite coal known to be such was discovered at Mauch Chunk, Pa., in 1791. The Lehigh Coal Mining company began business in the same year, making a commodity of the recent discovery.

wonder of the age." — Clarke & Kenney.

the United States, does very little service in France. A few are in use in the country, but in most farmhouses the cooking is done in a large open fireplace. In the cities a furnace is built in the small kitchen.
Paying the Landlord.
apartment houses near Fifth avenue
has paid a rather heavy penalty for
having a cartoonist as one of his tenants. The artist wanted some changes
made in the decoration of his apartment, and the proprietor declined to
are pronounced, and he wears long,
flowing side whiskers. His face, distorted to suit the cartoonist's fancy,
publication. The cartoonist lets the
whiskers grow from week to week;
then, just as his victim imagines that
they will grow so long that his friend
rietor of the apartment house has concluded that the only way in which he

Disheartening.
Even the clergyman, noble and in-
then his bad moments.
"Indeed!" said the minister, flushing
"Maybe their bearing's stronger than
a good seat." — Youth's Companion.
A Clock Run by Balls.
and operates the works. The balls drop
by placing the balls in a receptacle on
top of the clock. — Jewelers' Circular-Weekly.
such was discovered at Mauch Chunk,
company began business in the same year, making a commodity of the recent discovery.
Allen Halverson of West Prairie, Wis., says: "People come ten miles to buy Foley's Kidney Cure," while J. A. Spore of Belmar, Ind., says: "It is the medical wonder of the age." — Clarke & Kenney.
"The doctors told me my cough was incurable. One Minute Cough Cure made me a well man." Norris Silver, North Stratford, N. H. — Because you have not found relief from a stubborn cough, don't despair. One Minute Cough Cure has cured thousands and it will cure you. Safe and sure.

The Making of Good Coffee

Begins in the growing. Anywhere between the plantation and the coffee pot the flavor may be changed, the quality spoiled by carelessness, inexperience, or unscrupulous methods. From the time Arbuckles' Coffee leaves the hands of the grower until it reaches the user in a sealed packet, it is handled with the same watchful care, the same thought for cleanliness, that you would give any article of food that goes on your table. That's the reason it costs the grocer a cent a pound more than its cheap imitations. The extra cent you pay for buys much more than a cent's worth of quality and strength. A pound of Arbuckles' Coffee will give you more cups of better coffee than you would get from other package coffees.

ARBUCKLES' Roasted Coffee

Be sure you get Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee. Other package coffees are but imitations of Arbuckles'.

In each pound package of Arbuckles' Roasted Coffee there is a list of articles. With each package in which the list is found the purchaser has bought a definite part of some article to be selected by him or her from the list, subject only to the condition that the signature on the package is to be sent out and returned to our New York Dept. You should see this list. Address all communications to
